

Andrew Bourne named Litigation Star by Benchmark Litigation

Benchmark Litigation has recognized Andrew Bourne as a Litigation Star in the publication's 2022 edition.

Andrew Bourne has helped clients obtain hundreds of millions of dollars in insurance proceeds and other recoveries. He represents corporate and individual policyholders in federal and state courts and litigates significant and cutting-edge cases involving a wide range of insurance contracts, including cases that involve commercial general liability, directors and officers, errors and omissions, property and business interruption, professional liability, and multimedia errors and omissions policies, as well as fidelity bonds.

Advocating for corporate and individual policyholders in federal and state courts across the country, Andrew draws on nearly two decades of insurance industry-related legal experience. With his deep knowledge of various jurisdictions, he considers the circumstances of each case and brings lawsuits in the venues that are most advantageous.

Click here to read his full profile.

Related People

Andrew N. Bourne