

A Favorable Settlement in ERP Matter

Tali secured a favorable settlement for an industry-leading spice importer and custom manufacturer of specialty food ingredients at a confidential mediation with a global software provider of ERP software stemming from a failed ERP implementation. The mediation also resolved pending arbitration with the software implementer.