

Attaining an Optimum Outcome in Fraud and Breach of Contract Case

Tali successfully represented a privately owned consumer goods company, obtaining a significant settlement against a software consulting services company and global SAP partner. The case centered on an action for fraud and breach of contract alleging tens of millions in damages stemming from an ERP implementation that cost over $20 million to implement.