

Blazing Trails with a Significant Victory

Meredith helped win a substantial landmark verdict in a jury trial against several insurers that denied coverage for financial services organization TIAA-CREF following class actions stemming from its software implementation effort.