

Arbitration Success in Seller-Side Claim

In 2018, we represented former shareholders of a privately held Mexico City-based corporation in an arbitration hearing against an insurer in a seller-side R&W claim. The result: Three arbitrators unanimously found for the policyholder, our client, and ordered that the insurer must pay nearly $10 million, which was the overwhelming majority of its claim.