

$30m Recovery for Peruvian Company

In an arbitration hearing in 2019, our lawyers represented a power company based in Peru in a case that involved breaches of representations and warranties related to legal and tax obligations for its subsidiaries in Guatemala. We prevailed and a panel of three arbitrators awarded our client more than $30 million.