

Towers Watson and Co. securing access to more than $60 million

Our team obtained summary judgment for Towers Watson and Co., securing access to more than $60 million in insurance coverage for an underlying lawsuit. The ruling was a major victory for policyholders, and reaffirmed that a common “bump-up” exclusion in “D&O” policies does not bar coverage for claims arising from merger transactions.