

Law 360: Each Faulty Pella Window Claim Is 1 'Occurrence,' Judge Says

Senior U.S. District Judge James E. Gritzner granted Pella's motion for partial summary judgment, concluding that, because each of the 15 underlying suits at issue involves a unique set of facts, each one should be treated as a separate accidental occurrence under commercial general liability policies issued by Liberty Mutual. The judge rebuffed the insurer's bid to have the suits lumped into three or four broad categories.

To read Law360's coverage of the case, please click here.

Related People

Robin Cohen

Keith McKenna