

Law360 reported, “Vegas Outdoor Mall Can Pursue COVID-19 Coverage Suit”

Law360 reported that Judge Mark Denton has rejected Starr Surplus Lines Insurance Co. request to toss a COVID-19 business interruption coverage suit from JGB Vegas Retail Lessee LLC, finding “the owner sufficiently alleged property damage and the policy’s contamination and pollution exclusion does not apply to the virus-related losses.” Judge Denton ruled that “the insurer failed to demonstrate that the pollution exclusion bars coverage for COVID-19 related losses.”

Read the article here.

Additional Media Coverage:

Commerical RealEstate Direct (12-10-2020)

“A Nevada District Court has denied a property and casualty insurer’s motion to dismiss a lawsuit against it by a retail property owner who tried to file a claim for losses suffered as a result of the coronavirus pandemic.”

Related People

Robin Cohen

Marc T. Ladd