

Robin Cohen named a “Top 100 Trial Lawyers” by Benchmark Litigation for 2022

Benchmark Litigation has recognized Robin Cohen among the “Top 100 Trial Lawyers in America” in the publication’s 2022 edition. She was selected based on her proven achievements in bench and jury trials, and the strength and consistency of positive client/peer feedback about their practices.

Leading litigator Robin Cohen has recovered more than $10 billion in assets for her clients during her more than 30-year career. Robin counsels an exclusive policyholder client base spanning industries and countries, astutely advocating for them in cases involving asbestos, directors and officers issues, employee coverage, employee dishonesty, environmental, first-party, product liability, toxic tort, and other claims. Recognized as one of the most prominent and influential lawyers in the insurance bar, Robin and her three longtime colleagues launched Cohen Ziffer Frenchman & McKenna in January 2021.

Her excellent courtroom skills and trial success bring her recognition as one of The National Law Journal’s 50 Most Influential Women Lawyers in America, a recipient of the Legal 500 Advice to Policyholders Hall of Fame honor, Benchmark Litigation’s Top 100 Trial Lawyers in America, Top 250 Women in Litigation, and Insurance Lawyer of the Year, and Crain’s New York Business’ Notable Women in Law, among many other honors.

Click here to read her full profile.

Related People

Robin Cohen