

Justin

V. Javier

Associate

jjavier@cohenziffer.com

My Approach

I've found that taking a pragmatic approach to litigation tends to yield the best results. In high-stakes cases, emotions can run rampant. Staying calm and objective, I focus on finding consensus for acceptable resolutions, and engage in practical dialogue to overcome litigation impasses.

Overview

Advocating for insurance policyholders, Justin Javier works to ensure they receive the coverage they're due. With a competitive nature, he draws on his creativity, perseverance and analytical abilities in pursuit of fair compensation for clients.

Justin approaches the long litigation process with patience, meticulous organization and a proactive mindset that keeps things moving forward. Although he leaves no stone unturned in research and issue analysis, he zeroes in on the strongest arguments to highlight. Distilling complex information into easily understood language, Justin emphasizes brevity and clarity when presenting a case to judges and other decision-makers.

Prior to joining the firm, Justin honed his understanding of litigation procedures and decision-drafting skills for two years serving as an assistant law clerk to the Honorable Lucy Billings of the New York State Supreme Court.

Education

Fordham University School of Law (JD, , 2021)

Fordham Intellectual Property, Media and Entertainment Law Journal, Associate Editor
Asian Pacific American Law Student Association, External VP (Fall 2019 – Spring 2020)

Michigan State University (BA, , 2016)

Admissions

Bar Admissions

New York

Clerkships

- Assistant Law Clerk, Hon. Lucy Billings, New York Supreme Court