

Law360's 2020 Insurance Editorial Advisory Board

Law360 (April 9, 2020, 2:10 PM EDT) -- Law360 is pleased to announce the formation of its 2020 Insurance Editorial Advisory Board.

The editorial advisory board provides feedback on Law360's coverage and expert insight on how best to shape future coverage.

The members of Law360's 2020 Insurance Editorial Advisory Board are:

Suzanne Broadbent, CapSpecialty

Suzanne Broadbent graduated law school in 2002. She practiced in private practice for four years as a litigation attorney before joining a Lloyd's of London syndicate, where she worked for nine years in claims and compliance. In 2016, she joined CapSpecialty as associate general counsel and assistant secretary.

Kate Browne, Berkshire Hathaway Specialty Insurance

Kate Browne is senior counsel for Executive & Professional, North America at Berkshire Hathaway Speciality Insurance. She is a coverage attorney who has handled a wide range of issues related to directors and officers, errors and omissions, commercial general liability and cyber policies. She has written and spoken extensively on the implications of emerging technologies, including blockchain and artificial intelligence drones.

Tamara Bruno, Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP

Tamara Bruno is a partner in Pillsbury's insurance recovery and advisory practice in Houston. She advises insureds exclusively on insurance coverage matters and represents them in disputed claims. She has expertise in a wide range of business insurance, with a particular focus on D&O and cyber coverage.

Fred E. Karlinsky, Greenberg Traurig LLP

Fred E. Karlinsky is co-chair of Greenberg Traurig's insurance regulatory and transactions practice group. He has more than 25 years of experience representing the interests of insurers, reinsurers and a wide variety of other insurance-related entities on their regulatory, transactional, corporate and governmental affairs matters.

Shari Klevens, Dentons US LLP

Shari Klevens is a partner at Dentons US. She represents insurance companies in coverage and bad faith disputes and represents lawyers and law firms defending allegations of breach of duty and other ethical issues. She is a frequent writer and lecturer on these issues and has authored several books.

Marc Ladd, McKool Smith PC

Marc Ladd focuses on insurance coverage litigation and counseling for corporate policyholders. He regularly represents clients in federal and state court actions around the country, seeing damages, declaratory judgments and other relief against prominent U.S. and EU insurers, often resulting in millions of dollars in insurance recoveries.

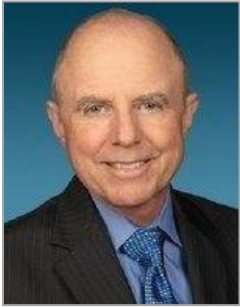

Seth Lamden, Neal Gerber & Eisenberg LLP

Seth Lamden focuses his practice exclusively on helping policyholders enforce and understand their rights to insurance coverage. He has recovered hundreds of millions of dollars in insurance proceeds under first- and third-party policies for policyholders in a variety of industries, including construction, financial and professional services, real estate, manufacturing and energy.

Kimberly M. Melvin, Wiley Rein LLP

Kimberly Melvin is a partner in the Washington, D.C., law firm of Wiley Rein and co-chair of the firm's insurance practice. She regularly counsels professional liability carriers on both coverage and underlying liability issues and has particular expertise in D&O and fiduciary liability insurance, insurance bankruptcy issues and the mediation of large, complex professional liability claims.

Tom Morante, Kaufman Dolowich Voluck LLP

Tom Morante chairs the firm's insurance regulatory and transactional practice and is a partner in the Fort Lauderdale office. He represents insurers and reinsurers, captives, insurance wholesalers, MGAs, insurance agents/brokers, financial institutions and investment funds with respect to U.S. state and foreign insurance regulatory, compliance and transactional matters.

--Editing by Kelly Duncan.